Worship with Communion: Sunday 9:30 am

Worship Online through Haven's Facebook Page

(Go to www.havenlc.org and click the  to access Haven's FB page.)

Traditionally Lent is a period of 40 days of intentional prayer, fasting and charity --- a time for deepening our relationship with God in a variety of faith-filled expressions. It is a time of truth-telling ---- a journey into the core of who we are and how we express it in word and action. Trusting in the love and mercy of God, we risk to face what weighs us down and distracts us from God and our neighbor, that we might draw closer to God and the fullness of who we were created to be. Be bold. Be brave. Through Christ we are set free from the fear of sin and death and set free to be transformed by the boundless, eternal love of God. Welcome to the gift of Lent.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

(Lent is a traditional time for self-examination and reflection. Assured of God's love and forgiveness we can dare to face ourselves and the ways we hurt God, others and ourselves. We make our confession trusting in our Lord whose love is eternal and whose grace is unfailing.)

P: Now is the acceptable time, now is the day of salvation!

(2 Cor. 6: 2b)

We gather in the name of the Father, and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen!

P: With honesty of heart and trusting in the steadfast, sure love of God,

C: We confess, to you, Lord, and to one another,
our sin and our need for healing.

Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

P: Gracious God,

C: we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

Sin separates us from You and our brothers and sisters.

Sin ties us up in knots and confuses us.

Sin sours our attitudes and destroys right priorities.

Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

What separates or distracts you from your love of God and your neighbor?

We are in need of a Savior. We want to live in Your love.

We want to better listen to Your words of truth and guidance.

We want to know Your power in our lives,

so that we can be faithful servants in Your world.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, Lord,

so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways, to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

A silence is kept to sit with our Lord, humbly awake to our sin but also keenly aware of God's forgiveness and unceasing love for us.

P: We are reconciled to God through Christ;

For his sake, God does not count our trespasses against us.

Once dead in sin, we are now alive to God.

Once lost, we now are found.

In the mercy of almighty God, receive the entire forgiveness of all your sins,

In the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

THE OFFERTORY PRAYER

A: Holy and generous host, you set a table where we feast as friends.

C: Prepare us to witness to your goodness with every gift you have given us to share, that all people may know your peace
 through Jesus Christ, now and forever. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING AND EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P: Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
in the beginning you formed the heavens and earth
and created us in your likeness.

You made us guardians of your good creation and left the earth in our care.

All through our weary years and our silent tears,
you did not abandon us to ourselves, but sought us out in love.

When we were captives in Egypt, you did not abandon us.

When we wandered in the wilderness, you did not abandon us.

When we turned to false gods, you did not abandon us.

Through your holy prophets you called us to return to your graciousness, to your mercy, and to your steadfast love.

In the crowning act of love you gave your only Son,
that whoever believes in him will have eternal life.

For you sent Jesus not to condemn the world,
but to save the world from sin.

Through his death on the cross, we who were once far off,
have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P: With this bread and cup, we remember Christ's life among us;
his association with outcasts, his eating with sinners,
his healing of the sick, his care for the poor.

Send, we pray, your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and wine, that we who share this meal may become a holy communion,
the body of Christ in the world.

C: Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORDS PRAYER

P: Lord, remember us in your Kingdom and teach us to pray:

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come,

thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P: Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, happy are those who are called to your supper. (John 1:29b)

C: Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed. (Matthew 8: 8)

EASTER FOOD BASKETS RETURN – Hurrah for Haven Lutheran Church! We will give food baskets at Easter. In doing so, we share God’s love and concern for others. Yes, things are different and there will be no giving tree. All of this due to the generosity of the congregation in the past three years.

Here’s what happened. The Hunger Team was unaware that generosity had led to an accumulation of funds beyond what we used for the holiday baskets. As Council moved towards the roof project, they looked at special gifts. The money for food baskets was never meant to accumulate and yet there were funds that had been there for a couple of years. They suggested that the team look at ways to use some of them to battle hunger. With that in mind, some of the team asked if we could use some of the money or whether it would be temporarily unavailable while it was part of the collateral for the loan on the roof. We asked if there was enough to buy the food for 6 families this Easter. The opinion was that it was available and would be a great use of it.

So once again this year, we will do something a little differently A few people from the team will do all the buying in such a way that there will be no need to have folks to pack (oh, that social distancing thing). The boxes will be picked up on April first (no fooling) using the same method we did at Christmas. The congregation is still involved because it was your generosity in the past that has provided the funds for these Easter food baskets.

The Hunger Team would like to ask the congregation to pray for the families we will give the food to. Also, give thanks for the staff at Fountaindale who care enough about their pupils to do the necessary paperwork to enable us to carry out this project. Virtual learning has made the job of getting written replies much more difficult for them. Yet they persevere to help their children and families. Linda Clark & the Hunger Team

CANCELLATION OF CHURCH EVENTS – Any cancellations of worship service will be noted on the church’s phone system in the special events/cancellation voicemail. When calling the church, after the main greeting, press the (*) key. This is where we will record all weather-related information.

Haven Mission Statement:

and to share the gospel of Jesus Christ.”*
